The 3rd Basic Law cum Celebration of the 20th Anniversary of Establishment of the HKSAR Territory-wide Inter-school Competition Regulations

Theme

- Understanding Justice and Law, Living a Colourful Life

Aims

- To enhance students' understanding of the Basic Law, including its origins and the spirit of the constitution;
- To guide students to understand the constitutional status of Hong Kong under the Basic Law;
- To develop students' understanding of the relationship between the Basic Law and the lives of Hong Kong people, including rights and responsibilities; and
- To enhance students' knowledge about history of the establishment, development and achievement of the HKSAR.

Details of the competition

- Pre-competition trial run is scheduled before the heat of the competition and the competition consists of the heat and the final.
- Entrants should be:
 - Secondary Section: Secondary 1-3 students; or
 - Primary Section: Primary 4-6 students.

(1) Pre-competition trial run

- The organising committee will allow entrants three days to familiarise themselves with the competition mode on the webpage of Hong Kong Education City.
- The trial run is scheduled from 14 Mar (Tue) to 16 Mar (Thu) and 22 Mar (Wed) to 24 Mar (Fri) 2017.

(2) Heat (online competition)

- Date and time for the competition
 - Entrants may participate in the competition from 27 Mar 2017 (Mon) to 31 Mar 2017 (Fri) on the designated website which is accessible from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
 - Schools may arrange the entrants to take part in the competition at the same time or at different time slots.

- Number of entrants
 - No limitation on the number of entrants from each school.

- Details
 - This part of the competition is staged online.
 - Each entrant can take part in the competition once only. They should answer 30 questions within 15 minutes. The competition is based on the participation rate, accuracy of answering the questions and speed. Entrants who are found to take part in the competition more than once during the period will be disqualified.
 - To ensure fairness and impartiality, entrants should take part in the competition under the supervision of teachers at school.
 - Entrants are not allowed to refer to any information or materials during the competition.
 - Entrants should log onto the student accounts of Hong Kong Education City and access the competition website with desktop computers, laptops or tablet computers connected to the school wired or wireless network.
 - Of the 30 schools with the highest student participation rate, the 5 schools with the highest average scores will reach the final. In case of ties, time spent on answering questions will be adopted as the criterion. No appeal will be accepted. Schools will compete in teams in the final.

- Awards
 - To encourage schools' active participation, the following will be awarded:
 - The Most Active Participation Award will be given to 30 schools with the highest student participation rate. In case of ties, the award will be given on the basis of the average scores and time spent on answering questions.
 - Of those receiving the Most Active Participation Award, the 5 schools with the highest average scores (time spent on answering questions will be adopted as the criterion in case of ties) will enter the final.

- Announcement of results
 - The competition results will be announced under "What's New" on the website of the Moral, Civic and National Education Section of the EDB (<http://www.edb.gov.hk/cd/mcne>) before 6:00 p.m. on 7 Apr 2017 (Fri). Schools going through to the final will receive notification by post.
