Hong Kong ICT Awards 2019: Student Innovation Award

Summary

The purpose of this circular memorandum is to inform schools of the competition “Hong Kong ICT Awards 2019: Student Innovation Award”. All primary and secondary school students are encouraged to participate in the above competition.

Details

2. The “Hong Kong ICT Awards” is steered by the Office of the Government Chief Information Officer (OGCIO). There are eight award categories organised by various Hong Kong ICT industry associations and professional bodies. This year, the Student Innovation Award, with the theme on “The Future of Smart Cities”, will be organised by the Hong Kong Innovative Technology Development Association (HKITDA). This award aims to encourage students to use their creativity to develop and apply innovative technology for the betterment of our community.

3. The competition will be divided into primary school and secondary school streams. Students may enter the competition either in individual or in groups. If students are interested in taking part in this competition, please visit the relevant website (<https://student.icta.hk>) and submit the completed application form and the entries to the organiser on the above website by 18 January 2019 (Friday).

Enquiries

4. For further enquiries about the captioned competition, please contact Ms Joey HO of the HKITDA at 5746 4315 or by email (award@hkitda.org).
