Teaching Award for Business and Financial Education 2019/20

1. Objectives

- To acknowledge good practices and recognise the efforts and contributions of teachers in personal finance or business education;
- To raise financial literacy in schools; and
- To develop a sharing community among teachers on personal finance or business education.

2. Target applicants

- All secondary school teachers who have taught and promoted personal finance or business education.

3. Details of the Award

- Teachers who are interested in The Award should submit relating information and materials (collectively the “Work”) by 6 p.m., 3 February 2020. The Work should present clearly how the pedagogy, teaching resources, programmes, projects or activities they adopt can promote knowledge, skills, attitudes, motivation and behaviours in personal finance and business education. The Work should also clearly illustrate the aims, processes and outcomes of each activity.

4. Rules of the Award

- The Works must be original. Participants need to guarantee that the content of the submitted works does not infringe any copyright and publication right. Please refer to the relevant ordinances. The organisers take no liability whatsoever regarding any infringement therein.
- The Award results are determined by the Independent Judging Panel. Participants shall not object to the results and awards determined.
- Participants should apply and submit works through the designated online platform of IFEC.

(Remarks: Last year winning works cannot be submitted again this year. The submission which is substantially similar to previous awarded works of the Award will not be qualified.)
